About the Conference

5th TARC 2025 (Trends in Accounting Research Conference 2025)

TARC 2025 together with international PhD colloquium and workshop is organized by five universities: (1) University of Lodz, Łódź, Poland; (2) Kaunas University of Technology, Kaunas, Lithuania, (3) University of Applied Sciences, Kiel, Germany, (4) Jönköping University, Jönköping, Sweden, (5) Linnaeus University, Växjö, Sweden. The conference is a three-day event, featuring PhD presentations and workshop, interactive paper sessions and social activities. Its aim is to bring together researchers from different countries to discuss latest trends and problems in accounting. 5th TARC 2025 will enable researchers to focus on current accounting issues while enjoying the beauty of Łódź and Poland. We are looking forward to warmly welcome all participants around the world on November 5th–7th 2025.

PhD International Colloquium and Workshop

The PhD colloquium is an integral part of TARC 2025, designed especially for doctoral students in accounting and related fields. It provides a unique opportunity to present and discuss their research projects in an international academic environment, to receive constructive feedback from senior scholars, and to exchange ideas with peers from different universities and countries.

The colloquium also features a dedicated workshop, “How to publish in a quality journal?”, led by Prof. Timur Uman (Jönköping University & Stockholm School of Economics). This session will guide PhD students through the publication process and offer practical advice on developing their academic careers.
